

The Book of Kells

official lyrics

KELLS OPENING THEME

I stand on ground I've walked before,
To seek the way

And watch the moon rise into night,
Illuminating with its light

My thoughts they turn in time and place,
Illuminated Word of grace
Where I will find the way divine

A throne in sight that blazes like eternal dawn
The mystery of Father, Spirit and the Son,
The Three in One

And precious stones of colours bright Eagle and calf, lion and man,
Do meet around the throne of light

In colours rich that last through time
In patterns of the Spirit's mind
Illuminated Word divine

I stand on ground I've walked before,
To seek the way

REVELATION

Waiting for the Spirit of Truth to tell Power on Earth to stand in the way of hell Waiting for the sky to clear Waiting for the sun to appear

Waiting to see you
Waiting to hear you
Waiting for vision
To see your, your Revelation

Learning the purifying flame Regeneration after the growing pain
Longing for the words to flow

Longing for the world to know

Waiting to see you
Waiting to hear you
Waiting for vision
To see your, your Revelation

MATTHEW - THE MAN

The tears that salt the earth
The wounds that bleed the land
The mark of ancient scars
These are the ways of man

The sound of restless souls
That pierce beyond the skies
The love that seeks release
The mind that tries to find A place of peace

There is a place of peace
There is a sea of calm
Where the Spirit gently breathes Life into the soul of man

And in another realm
Beyond the plains of Earth and time Where angels gaze upon
The man of truth and light

CHI-RHO

Verse 1

Colour of green
Green for the vine
For the leaves and the branches
The tree of life

Colour of red
Red for the wounds
That are deeper than I can know How deep the flow

Chorus 1

By Him all things, were created
By Him all things, were created
And the fullness, of the Godhead
Is in Him
Chi-Rho

Verse 2

Colour of gold
Gold for a throne
For the light that is blazing
From His face
Colourless white
For purity
White as snow, the colours flow
The mystery of Chi-Rho

Chorus 2

By Him all things, were created
By Him all things, were created
Is in Him

By Him all things, were created
By Him all things, were created
Is in Him, Chi-Rho
in Him, Chi-Rho

THE RIVER FLOWS

Throwing light into a darkened cold Hands that toil until the night grows old Pure devotion of a faithful heart
That knows Your Spirit

And the river flows
Through eternity

Down through the ages the Truth will survive
Turning the pages the Light cannot die
Down through the ages the Truth will survive

Pages of eternal mystery
Where the Spirit knows what the eye cannot see Images of Earth and Heaven
Mysteriously drawn together

And the river flows

Down through the ages the Truth will survive

Turning the pages the Light cannot die

KELLS THEME

Verse 1

I stand on ground i¹ve walked before
and see the night become the dawn to show the path the goose has flown a time will come and truth reveal the glory of eternal god jesus the son, the living word

Middle 8

When beauty¹s colours fade away and earthly pages find decay the word divine, always the same

Chorus

His word shall live forever
the word is a sword that pierces the heart
the truth is a light that cuts through the dark
of this world

nations shall rise, nations shall fall,
nothing shall stand

nations shall rise, nations shall fall,
